Summary

Future Electronics is celebrating the arrival of Summer 2023 with a delicious company barbeque at their Montreal headquarters.

Message

Montreal, Canada ( prsafe) June 9, 2023 - Future Electronics, a leading global distributor of electronic components, is celebrating the arrival of summer with a barbeque for all corporate employees. This annual tradition is a fun way for colleagues to connect while enjoying the sunshine, delicious food, and live music.

The barbeque is set for June 14th, 2023 and will take place in the greenspace outside the Future Electronics Montreal headquarters. The menu is filled with gourmet options such as chipotle fish tacos with peach salsa, pulled barbeque chicken sliders, mixed greens and strawberry salad, and grilled pineapple. There will also be classic barbeque favourites such as Angus burgers, beef hotdogs, pasta salad, potato salad, chips, and coleslaw. Lastly, gelato will be served for dessert. Vegan and gluten-free options will be available on request.

Future Electronics is delighted to be able to show their appreciation to their Montreal employees with this festive event and looks forward to ringing in the summertime season.
