Summary

Future Electronics is proud to celebrate the 25th work anniversary of Cindy Peters, who has been a dedicated and valued member of the team since 1999.

Message

Montreal, Canada (prsafe) July 16, 2024 - Future Electronics, a global leader in the electronic components industry, is thrilled to celebrate Cindy Peters' 25th work anniversary. Since joining Future Electronics in 1999 as a sales support representative, Cindy has exemplified dedication and excellence, contributing significantly to the company's success.

Cindy's career at Future Electronics has been marked by steady growth and numerous achievements. In 2003, she was promoted to inside sales, where she has continued to excel.

"Over the past 25 years have received an immeasurable amount of training, courses, and hands-on experience that have helped build up many relationships with local reps and customers," Cindy said when asked about her experience with Future Electronics.

When she's not at work, Cindy enjoys traveling, golfing with her family, being a foodie, and spending time in her garden. Diagnosed with breast cancer in November 2022, Cindy underwent treatment throughout 2023 and received a clear bill of health in 2024. She now volunteers at Gilda's Club, providing personal support to others who are living with cancer.

Congratulations to Cindy on her journey with Future Electronics. We look forward to many more years together.
