Future Electronics is featuring the Bulgin 400 Series Buccaneer series in a recently launched digital campaign.

Message
Montreal, Canada (prsafe) September 23, 2024 - Future Electronics, a global leading distributor of electronic components, is pleased to announce a newly-launched digital campaign putting the spotlight on Bulgin's 400 Series Buccaneer connectors.

These IP-rated circular connectors for power, signal and data by Bulgin are optimally suited to provide high performance levels in demanding environments. These rugged connectors can submerge in water and withstand high levels of UV exposure, being a small-form, all-terrain solution. The Bulgin 400 series Buccaneer excels under challenging conditions and helps you reduce installation time in the process.
