Summary
10,000 Pounds of Donated Furniture and Household Items Collected at Stow, MA "Fill a Truck" Event to Help People in Need

Message
Stow, MA, November 15, 2025 -- On November 1, the generous public helped â€œFill a Truckâ€• at the Pompositticut Community Center in Stow, MA with over 100 good quality household items weighing 10,000 pounds for donation to Household Goods. Household Goods provides a full range of donated furniture and household items, free of charge, to help people in need throughout Massachusetts make a home. Â The event was organized and sponsored by Markâ€™s Moving & Storage, based in Westborough, MA who is the official mover of Household Goods In addition, Markâ€™s Moving & Storage provided a driver, support staff, and truck. Â â€œOur company was delighted to help organize, promote, and staff this critical effort to gather new and used items that will help turn empty rooms into homes. The event was overwhelmingly successful, and we will use it as a template to hold similar events in the near future,â€• noted Mark Silverman, founder of Markâ€™s Moving & Storage, and Markâ€™s Northeastern Furniture Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to re-purposing discarded furniture and provide for charities and individuals in need. Â Sharon Martens, Executive Director of Household Goods, Inc., added, â€œWe are grateful for the generosity of our community, the tireless efforts of our volunteers, and the support and logistics provided by Markâ€™s Moving & Storage.â€• Â About Household Goods, Inc.: Since 1990, Household Goods has furnished 60,000 homes across Massachusetts.
