Message
Atlanta, GA, June 2, 2026 -- Industry Analyst and Columnist Jeff Kagan, recognized as a leading voice in the wireless, 5G, AI, telecom, and technology sectors, is announcing new growth opportunities for news websites and client companies to broaden their market influence by partnering. Â With a prolific career spanning decades, Kagan has written thousands of columns for top news platforms and appeared as a guest expert on major television networks and investor channels. His expertise, insights, and ability to simplify complex industry trends have made him a trusted resource for media, business executives, investors, and customers alike. Â Kagan is now expanding his reach in two vital ways: Â 1. Publishing his columns on new news sites. This will benefit them by attracting new readership. Â 2. Assisting client companies in wireless, telecom, AI, and technology sectors to grow their visibility and reach in a competitive marketplace. Â â€œThe communications and technology landscape is constantly evolving. My goal is to help news sites and companies stay ahead of the curve by providing expert analysis and increased visibility,â€• said Jeff Kagan. Â Executives interested in learning how to boost their companyâ€™s market presence and editors seeking compelling, expert-driven content are invited to connect with Jeff Kagan for collaboration opportunities. Â Dick Martin, former EVP of Public Relations at AT&T, says, â€œJeff Kagan has been described as the most widely quoted analyst in the telecommunications industryâ€•, in his book titled Tough Calls: AT&T and the Hard Lessons Learned from the Telecom Wars.
