Message

Montreal, Quebec (prsafe) August 26, 2026 – Future Electronics, a global leader in electronic component distribution, is proud to announce that it has received the Titan Distributor of the Year 2025 award from ams OSRAM during the EDS Leadership Summit in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Presented by Marian White and Jodie Metsos, the award recognizes the top-performing distributor across the Americas region based on exceptional sales achievement and significant contributions to demand creation. The award was accepted on behalf of Future Electronics by Salvatore Pepe, Matthew Rotholz, Jason Vick, and Domenica Cioffi.

As a global leader in digital photonics, ams OSRAM develops advanced light and sensor technologies that power innovations across automotive, industrial, medical, and consumer electronics applications. With more than 120 years of engineering excellence and a portfolio spanning illumination, visualization, and sensing technologies, the company continues to shape a smarter, safer, and more sustainable future.

The Titan Distributor of the Year award recognizes Future Electronics' success in bringing innovative technologies to market and helping customers identify new opportunities for growth. Through its technical expertise, dedicated engineering support, and customer-focused approach, Future Electronics plays a key role in accelerating the adoption of next-generation solutions across the Americas.

The award was presented during the EDS Leadership Summit, one of the electronics industry's most influential annual gatherings. The event brings together manufacturers, distributors, and representatives from around the world to exchange ideas, strengthen relationships, and explore new opportunities for collaboration and growth.

Future Electronics is honored to receive this prestigious recognition from ams OSRAM and looks forward to building on its shared commitment to innovation, demand creation, and long-term success.
