Message

Montreal, Quebec (prsafe) August 27, 2026 â€“ Future Electronics, a global leader in electronic component distribution, is proud to announce that it has received the CIT Relay & Switch's 2025 Excellence in Distribution Award during the EDS Leadership Summit in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The award was presented to Kathryn Sartain on behalf of Future Electronics in recognition of the company's exceptional support, commitment, and partnership with CIT Relay & Switch throughout the year. According to CIT, Future Electronics' dedication to customer service, operational excellence, and continued collaboration has played a key role in driving mutual success and strengthening the relationship between the two organizations.

Based in the Minneapolis area, CIT Relay & Switch is a leading designer and manufacturer of electromechanical relays, solid-state relays, and electromechanical switches. The company is known for combining quality products, responsive customer support, and cost-effective manufacturing to serve customers throughout North America and around the world.

Recognition from supplier partners reflects the values that guide Future Electronics every day. By combining technical expertise, supply chain support, and a customer-first mindset, Future Electronics helps customers navigate complex challenges while creating opportunities for long-term growth and success.

Presented during the EDS Leadership Summit, one of the electronic components industry's most important annual events, the award highlights the importance of strong partnerships in driving innovation and business success. The summit brings together manufacturers, distributors, and industry leaders from around the world to exchange ideas, strengthen relationships, and explore new opportunities.

Future Electronics is honored to receive this recognition from CIT Relay & Switch and looks forward to continuing a successful partnership built on trust, collaboration, and a shared commitment to excellence.
