Message

Montreal, Quebec (prsafe) August 29, 2026 - Future Electronics, a global leader in electronic component distribution, is excited to announce that it has received Adam Tech's inaugural Global Distributor of the Year Award at the EDS Leadership Summit in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Presented by Marc Pelletier, Magen Rigdon Pirpich, and Kristen Elzey, the award recognizes Future Electronics as Adam Tech's top-performing global distribution partner for 2025. The award was accepted on behalf of Future Electronics by Ryan Petsche and Hilary Bond.

As a leading manufacturer of connectivity components, electromechanical products, power and protection solutions, switches, cables, and custom-engineered technologies, Adam Tech has built a reputation for delivering high-quality products, responsive service, and innovative manufacturing capabilities.

Receiving Adam Tech's first-ever Global Distributor of the Year Award reflects Future Electronics' ability to create value on a worldwide scale. Through its extensive international network, technical expertise, and customer-focused approach, Future Electronics helps connect customers with innovative technologies while supporting suppliers in expanding their global market reach.

The award was presented during the EDS Leadership Summit, a premier annual gathering of leaders from across the electronic components industry. The event serves as an important forum for strategic collaboration, relationship building, and the exchange of ideas that help shape the future of the industry.

Future Electronics is honored to receive this inaugural recognition from Adam Tech and looks forward to continuing its successful collaboration, while helping customers worldwide access innovative technologies and solutions.
