Summary

Future Electronics is showcasing Signify's CertaMatch High Bay and Troffer systems.

Message

Pointe Claire, Quebec (prsafe) January 28, 2021 - Future Electronics, a global leading distributor of electronic components, is putting the Signify's CertaMatch High Bay and Troffer systems for LED projects.

Future Electronics is committed to providing customers with turn-key solutions that reduce the time and complexity of designing a new luminaire system, which sets the Signify CertaMatch system apart from the rest.

The CertaMatch troffer and high-bay systems pair the latest LED drivers with the modules needed to delivery the quality and reliability that is synonymous with the Signify name.
