Strawser Auction Group's May 26-29 Antique Auction Features Majolica, Fenton Glass, Pickard China

News-Press Release
Wolcottville, Indiana (Newsbox) 05-May-2021
https://prsafe.com/release/13438/

Summary
Headlining the auction is the Ann and Robert Fromer collection of majolica, assembled over the course of 30+ years. Itâ€™s a live gallery sale; online bidding via LiveAuctioneers.

Message
Wolcottville, IN, USA, May 5, 2021 -- A four-day Antique Auction bursting with nearly 2,000 lots of quality items, including important collections of majolica, Pickard china, World War II collectibles, Fenton glass and more will be held May 26th through 29th, by Strawser Auction Group, live in the gallery at 106 East Dutch Street in Wolcottville, as well as online via LiveAuctioneers.com. â€œOf special interest is the Ann and Robert Fromer collection of majolica, assembled over the course of more than thirty years. The Fromers were avid collectors,â€• said Michael Strawser, the president of Strawser Auction Group and founder of the Majolica International Society. â€œThe pieces in their collection are outstanding. The estate collection of Pickard china is also superb.â€• Day 1, on Wednesday, May 26th, at 3 pm Eastern, will feature militaria (to include the World War II collection and firearms), toy banks, advertising collectibles, silver and jewelry. Top lots will include a Fowler Sportsman cast-iron mechanical bank by J. & E. Stevens (est. $1,500-$2,000); a Yankee Boy Plug Cut tobacco tin (est. $150-$250); and a silver mounted drinking horn with silver deer heads and other figures, made in Germany in 1899 (est. $800-$1,200). Day 2, on Thursday, May 27th, also at 3 pm, will contain furniture, over 300 clocks, lighting and Oriental rugs. Up for bid will be an oil on canvas of sheep in a meadow by Augustine Bonheur (French, 1824-1884) in a 28 inch by 35 inch frame (est. $1,200-$1,500); a Handel bronze desk lamp with large lily pad base (est. $300-$500); an unmarked Ansonia clock with Indian figure, key and pendulum and a bronzed 6-light lamp with boy and girl figure (both est. $200-$300). Day 3, May 28th, also at 3 pm Eastern, will feature 437 lots of antique glassware and collectibles, led by a rare Fenton Burmese childâ€™s 7-piece water set (5 Â½ inch tall pitcher and glasses), signed Vicki Fielder (est. $200-$300); a Mt. Washington peachblow satin coralene vase, 6 Â½ inches tall (est. $100-$150); and a Fenton topaz vaseline opalescent epergne 9 Â½ inches tall (est. $80-$120). Day 4, on Saturday, May 29th, at 9 am Eastern, will be a majolica and ceramics auction, headlined by the Ann and Robert Fromer collection of majolica, plus more than 300 pieces of Pickard, R.S. Prussia and more. Itâ€™s the day serious collectors of majolica, Pickard and other fine items will be waiting for. Three items in particular are expected to attract much bidder attention. To learn more about the Strawser Auction Group and the four-day Antique Auction planned for May 26th-29th, live and online, visit www.strawserauctions.com. Updates are posted frequently. There will be telephone bidding for items $2,500 or more, and absentee bids will be accepted.

Contact Information
Michael Strawser
Strawser Auction Group
2608542859
michael@strawserauctions.com

Tag Cloud
antiques majolica pickard china world war 2 collectibles

Categories
Arts/Museums

Disclaimer
This release was submitted by a Newsbox user.
Any communication related to the content of this release should be sent to the release submitter.