Summary

Robert Miller, President of Future Electronics, praised his team for winning the Americas Distributor of the Year for 2021 from Geyer Electronic.

Message

Montreal, Canada (prsafe) August 1, 2022 - Future Electronics, a global leading distributor of electronic components, recently won the Americas Distributor of the Year award for 2021 from Geyer Electronic, a leading manufacturer of frequency products, quartz crystals, oscillators, and ceramic resonators.

Robert Miller, President of Future Electronics, thanked everyone who contributed to the company's industry-leading performance on behalf of Geyer in 2021.

"Geyer's dedication to service and support were key factors in Future Electronics' success," said Craig Sydell, Director of Product Marketing at Future Electronics. "Winning the 2021 Distributor of the Year award was a great achievement for us."

The award was presented to Future Electronics at EDS 2022 in Las Vegas, Nevada earlier this year. Future outperformed all other distributors in the Americas in 2021, generating significant sales growth on behalf of Geyer across the region while effectively supported their customers' needs.

Future Electronics also won the company's 2020 Distributor of the Year award.

Geyer Electronic is an international provider of Frequency Control Products (Crystals and Oscillators), and demanding specialty batteries. The company has its headquarters in Gräfelfing near Munich, Germany, as well as offices in the US, Singapore, India, the UK and Hungary.

Future Electronics was founded by Robert Miller in 1968, and the company remains the only distributor with a globally integrated worldwide IT infrastructure.
