Message

Montreal, Canada (prsafe) " December 14, 2022 " Future Electronics, a global leading distributor of electronic components, is featuring the KYOCERA AVX 5861 Series in the latest edition of Sense Connect Control. The device made the feature for its superior robustness and space-saving characteristics.

The KYOCERA AVX 5861 Series is a family of highly robust board-to-board connectors designed for space constrained applications. These devices offer a smooth guiding function and, thanks to their metal coverings on both ends, they prevent breakage while keeping narrow pitches and a low profile.

Future Electronics often promotes the latest, most exciting, and trending devices in the technology industry. This feature on Sense Connect Control highlights the KYOCERA AVX 5861 series' capabilities to bring designs to new heights by adding value in every step of the way.
